Outline of the course

CCM5031E - Communication Management is designed to introduce students to the theories, principles, and practices of public relations (PR) as management of communication between an organization and its publics. The course provides theoretical and practical knowledge for effective communication management in corporate settings. It helps students develop an understanding of how communication strategies can shape various publics’ perceptions and opinions of an organization, person, product or issue. The course teaches students how to analyze public relations problems, formulate and implement viable strategies for problem resolutions and how to plan and implement a PR campaign.

Learning Objectives

By the end of the course, students shall
• be able to define public relations and identify instances of public relations in multiple contexts
• have an advanced understanding of theories and principles or communication management,
• be able to synthesize broader management knowledge with the principles of communication management,
• have the ability to reflect on the roles and responsibilities of communication managers,
• the capacity to apply intercultural and global perspectives to communication management,
- be able to apply concepts, strategies and instruments of communication management to solve practical challenges,
- be able to analyze, plan, and implement a communication campaign.

Teaching and Learning Approach

The course is organized as a lecture, but throughout the course special emphasis is put on discussion and interaction with the students. Based upon profound knowledge of theory and its implications we will critically discuss cases and practical examples. Preparation based upon suggested basic readings and continuing active class participation throughout the term is expected. Active class participation involves more than physical presence: The learning process not only occurs between instructor and student, but also among students. I welcome your questions, participation in discussions and in case studies – you will have plenty of opportunities to contribute to the class!

Grading

Your success in this course will depend on attending class. Attendance in all sessions, preparation and active participation is mandatory. Students are allowed one unexcused absence during the semester. Approved absences may include severe illness, funeral of an immediate family member, or other event with a non-negotiable date. The grading will be based upon a 60 minutes written exam at the end of the semester. To pass 30 points out of a maximum of 60 points have to be achieved.
